Value of Temperance.

Let the virtue of temperance be proclaimed in all the churches. Let the Mamily inculcate in the children the spiritual and temporal blessings which spring from a life of temperance and sobriety. Let the father and mother impress upon their children the terrible consequences of drunkenness.-Cardinal Gibbons, Roman Catholic, Balti-

Aim of Life.

Life is real. Life is earnest. Life is an opportunity to do something for God and man. It is not intended to be wasted with unintelligent activities. The question is not, "Are you busy?" but "What are you doing?" Is the end and aim of your life to help God make this world better? It is not enough even to be good, but we must be good for something .- Rev. J. Horace Mallows, Congregationalist, Los Angeles.

Man's Will.

The sovereign will of man is the mightiest force in human life. It is the absolutely foundamental power in personality, the executive of the individual life. Every man is a small army of faculties, but the will is the commander, the pilot that runs the ship, who can bring it safely through the stress of weather and wave to its destined harbor. The will is the king led into right relations to God in our religious life through the feelings or the intellect. It is not what a man knows or what he feels, but what he wills to be and do, that makes him a Christian and a man.-Rev. Cortland Myers, Baptist, Brooklyn.

The Church What People Make It. We must remember that the church has grown up out of human life and is purely a creation of the human heart and mind. We have expected it to perform miracles and to redeem the world with a gesture. But there have of any case of Kidney or been no miracles, and so some of us have decided that the church is a failure. It is a failure as a miraculous creation, but it is not a failure as a natural product of human life. It is not an end in itself, but a means to moral and religious education. It reflects man's nobilities and his moral poverty. It is divine only as the human beings who compose it are divine. It is powerful only as the human beings behind it put their power into it. There are as many styles of church as there are types of men. The church is what the people make it.-Rev. J. C. Jaynes, Unitarian, Newton, Mass.

Ideal Church. Man's highest ideals are God's creation. A bird's note, a bit of sunlight or the dream of angels gives us music and painting and sculpture. But man's ideal is God's real. This is clearly seen in the origin and life of the church of God in all ages. The Acts of the Apostles show us the origin of the church in the little band of disciples who followed Christ. Then, empowered for aggressive work by the descent of the Holy Spirit, they began that mighty march through the centuries which has not yet ceased. Their ideal elements were prayer, united and Individual speaking, speaking everywhere the great paths of Christianity. a plenteous visitation of God's spirit making them bold in speech, united in spirit and generous of their means for the common good of all believers. The result of this was that great grace rested upon them, men believed their united and individual testimony, and the church was launched to sail through storm and tempest to a safe harbor with an abundant entrance. Jesus Christ in his church today in the hearts of believers is again the ideal church which will add unto it daily such as shall be saved .- Rev. Walter H. Waygood, Presbyterian, Baltimore.

"Leaf is the cream of lards. There is not enough of it to supply one-tenth of the people."

Here is a frank admission from the leading lard packer that nine-tenths of the people are using other than leaf-lard—the only lard that is even safe. So you see what a chance you have of getting purity when you buy lard. You are simply taking chances on a hog-fat product of disreputable ancestors and doubtful cleanliness.

On the other hand when you buy Cottolene you get a pure vegetable product. It is better and healthier than lard because its source is clean-its process of manufacture is clean, and it is marketed in clean, air-tight cans that shut out all odors and contamination.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an airtight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.
